HelpLine Receives $3,000 Donation from Emerson Network Power
Donation supports crisis and prevention programs for children and families

Delaware, OH – HelpLine of Delaware and Morrow Counties, Inc. (HelpLine) announced today the receipt of a $3,000 donation from Emerson Network Power to support crisis and prevention programs for children and families.

“We are pleased to receive support from Emerson Network Power,” said Sue Hanson, Executive Director of HelpLine of Delaware and Morrow Counties, Inc. “The donation will increase our ability to provide critical programs and services that benefit our community.”

In this past year, HelpLine assisted 639 households prevent utility shut-offs, eviction or mortgage foreclosure. Nearly 12,000 callers to the 24-hour support and information line received emergency financial or food assistance, mental health and substance abuse referrals, and victim-centered support and advocacy services.

Bob Walters, Delaware Plant Manager at Emerson Network Power said “Emerson Network Power is strongly committed to supporting and giving back to the communities where its employees work and live.” “We are proud to partner with HelpLine in its efforts to develop safe and healthy communities for children and families.”
